CBRE HOTELS ASIA PACIFIC TEAM GROWS

CBRE Hotels is pleased to announce the addition to the team in Singapore of Helen Brewis-Levie. Helen is to start in early May as Senior Manager, Valuations and Consultancy. Her main focus will be to further develop the business in SE Asia but she will also be working with the existing teams in other locations such as China and Japan. Helen has a strong operational and consultancy background having worked for organisations such as Jumeirah Group in Dubai, CDL Hospitality Trust and Horwath in Singapore and Deloitte and Ernst &Young in Europe.

Helen said "I am very pleased to be returning to Singapore and having a regional role with CBRE Hotels. I look forward to assisting a range of clients and advising them on the values of their hotel and leisure properties and preparing feasibility studies, reviewing operations and helping them maximise their returns."

Robert McIntosh, Executive Director, CBRE Hotels in Asia-Pacific said "we are delighted to have someone with Helen's considerable hotel skills join us. Her previous, substantial, experience in Asia will enable her to provide clients with advice based on this depth of local knowledge. Her joining our increasing strong team across the region will complement our existing skills in Hong Kong, Beijing, Shanghai and Tokyo. This will mean that we will have tripled our number of personnel in Asia in the last fifteen months thereby providing a better and greater depth of service."
