Julien Naouri joined the EMEA team as a Consultant in January 2008. After having worked within the France team for nearly two years, Julien transferred to Singapore Team in early 2010. Julien is a Consultant within the CBRE Hotels business line in Southeast Asia and focuses upon Strategic Reviews, Feasibility Studies, Cash Flow Analyses and support Capital Markets assignments within the Southeast Asia Region.

Based in Singapore, Julien works with representatives of the CBRE Hotels business line in Asia Pacific, as well as resources within the broader CB Richard Ellis global platform, to provide clients with specialist consulting, valuation and investment related services associated with hospitality related assets and developments. The global Hotels team comprises over 150 industry experts based across key regions.

Julien has a broad range of experience in relation to the provision of specialist hospitality related services and as a result is well placed to assist clients in relation to asset sourcing, hotel management selection, asset manager selection, market positioning/branding of hospitality assets, consultancy, investment analysis and financing strategies.

Julien has worked on a number of hotel valuations, capital markets assignments and operator selection in France and Europe, including assets in Paris, London, Madrid, Geneva and Lyon.

Prior to joining CBRE Hotels, Julien attended the Ecole Hoteliere de Lausanne (Switzerland) from where he graduated with a Bachelor of Science in International Hospitality Administration.
